II. REMARKS

The amendment to the drawing figures merely corrects the legend of Figures 5 through 9 to correctly identify the concentration in mM units instead of μ M units, and therefore, does not add new matter. Accordingly, entry of the nine (9) sheets of Replacement Formal Drawings is respectfully requested.

Applicants have been advised that this application has been withdrawn from issue to permit reopening of prosecution and anticipate communication from the examiner as to the reasons for said withdrawal.

The Examiner is invited to contact Applicants' undersigned representative if there are any questions relating to this application. Respectfully submitted,
